

Robert (Bob) Miller first moved into the Westwood community in 1978. Elected to the Council in 2008, Bob is the liaison to the Westwood Police and Office of Emergency Management as well as the Parking Authority. Bob is a former member of both the Westwood Planning Board [2000-2007] and the Westwood Zoning Board [2007]. He has also served the community by being a member of the Westwood Fire Department (15 years) serving as the President of the Hook and Ladder Company and he was Co Chair for the WWFD's 100th anniversary. In addition he coached St Andrew's 6-8 grade girls CYO basketball team, which in 1985 won the County Championship.

For a period of time, Bob lived in Ridgewood. While a resident of Ridgewood he was elected to the Ridgewood council in 1996 and in 1998 was selected as Deputy Mayor. While on the council, Bob was on the Library Board of Trustees, Youth Council Liaison, and the Fourth of July Committee and he also continued his association with the Westwood Fire Department.

Currently, Bob is on the faculties as an adjunct of Bergen Community College and Essex County College (conducting motivational workshops and teaching individual marketing). In addition, Bob manages the Human Resource firm he founded in 1987 which designs compensation plans and develops and delivers a wide range of training programs that increase his clients' profitability. His prior employment included holding senior level human resources management positions for corporate leaders such as Corning, Met Path, Roure (Hoffman La Roche), and Doubleday. His public service employment was with the New Jersey Chancellor of Higher Education, Personnel Supervisor and as technical assistant for the New Jersey Budget Bureau. In these senior Human Resource management position, he designed merit compensation approaches, negotiated labor contracts, created succession plans and designed and delivered training.

Bob attended University of Dayton and has graduated from Rider College (now Rider University) with a BS in Commerce.

Married to Aeche (Gina) and three adult children, Kimberly Dunworth, R. Troy Miller, and Mindy Raisor and two grandchildren, Kyleigh (age 4) and Kathryn (born 8/07).
